This is a summary of correct information.

Monthly meetings are the 1st Saturday of each month at the Glidden Public Library, 108 Idaho St., Glidden, Iowa, 10:00am, unless otherwise stated.

The Genealogy Library is located at the Glidden Public Library.
The Library hours are from 12:00pm - 5:00pm Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.
10:00am – 6:00pm Thursday and
9:00am - 1:00pm Saturday.

The phone number at the library is 712-659-3781. We spoke with Suzanne Olberding at the Library for this update.

Our collection includes Carroll County birth, marriage, and death index records; obituaries; town and county histories; atlases, maps, and plat books; church histories; cemetery inventories; census schedules; family genealogies; biographies; school records; newsletters, and miscellaneous other research materials.

She believes they accept dues for membership.
DUES: Membership is open to anyone interested in genealogy, historical or biographical research.
Dues are $8.00 per year for an individual membership and $12.00 for a family membership.

Mary Ealy is the Society President.
Requests for research are given to Mary Ealy by the library.
