1 The subjects name will go on the left box, their birth and/or death will below their name.

2 Go up and over one box for their paternal information and down and over one box for their maternal information.

3

As you build across, to the very right you will see a line after that person. Assign a unique number to that person. This is so if you are able to continue on that branch of your tree, you can start a new sheet and track the sheet to the person.

4

Start a new sheet with that persons name in the left box and in the lower left corner place their unique ID. Continue building your tree.
